WHEREAS, the PCS-AHMOPI MOA took effect on January 1, 2022 and shall expire on December 31, 2024, after which period both parties may jointly review, revise and/or modify the said MOA, if necessary, prior to its renewal for another three (3)-year term.

WHEREAS, AHMOPI Members and the PCS are desirous of entering into an arrangement whereby PCS Physicians will provide medical services to AHMOPI plan holders in different localities/communities all over the Philippines .

WHEREAS, all AHMOPI members who have consented in writing to the PCS-AHMOPI MOA & IRR cannot refuse PCS physicians who have voluntarily agreed to join MOA initiatives and have an inforce USA issued by the AHMOPI, even if these physicians are outside of the AHMOPI-Member's network of accredited physicians, except for just cause as provided for in the PCS or PMA Code of Ethics and as determined by the PCS-AHMOPI Liaison Committee. In like manner, PCS physicians who have voluntarily consented in writing to the PCS-AHMOPI MOA and IRR cannot refuse AHMOPI patients once they are chosen except for just cause as provided for in the PCS or PMA Code of Ethics and as determined by the PCS-AHMOPI Liaison Committee.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing premises, the parties hereby mutually agree as follows:

1. The Physician agrees to render quality and cost - effective medical services to patients of AHMOPI members. In consideration for the above services, the following professional fees (exclusive of Philippine Health Insurance Corporation fees) will be paid:

1.1. Outpatient consultation fees:

The Parties agree that the outpatient face-to-face consultation fee of the Physician shall be Six Hundred Pesos (Php 600.00) regardless of their place of practice. Teleconsult fee shall be Four Hundred Pesos (P 400.00) Please see Annex "A" for the Philippine Academy of Ophthalmology (PAO) and Annex "B" for the Philippine Society of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery (PSO-NHS).

1.2. All professional surgical fees shall be based on the current/prevaling Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PHIC) Relative Value Scale (RVS).

1.2.1. A 4-tiered multiplier for surgical professional fees shall be paid by the AHMOPI Members in behalf of their patients as follows:

- a. Ward/Out-patient - P 140
- b. Semi-private - P 145
- c. Private - P 150
- d. Suite - P 155

For multiple procedures, please see Annex "C."

1.3. Following are daily visit fees for surgical patients admitted into the hospital but are not operated on:

- a. Ward - P 700
- b. Semi-private - P 850
- c. Private - P 1,000
- d. Suite - P 1,300
- e. ICU - P 1,500

1.4. Highly specialized procedures which will require instruments that are not available in the hospital shall be paid according to provisions in the attached Annex "D."

1.5. The above surgical compensation schemes are inclusive of two (2) days pre-operative and five (5) days post-operative visits. Compensation for subsequent daily visits for confinements for complications that may occur after surgery, for the same or new condition/s which may not be related to the initial surgery, shall be the same as provided in 1.3. above.

1.6. Whatever changes there may be in the Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PHIC) Relative Values Scale (RVS) in the future (within the PCS-AHMOPI MOA period) will take effect six (6) months after the effective date of the change.

1.7. Other charges:

1.7.1. Incremental costs, if any, of involuntary room upgrades (i.e., from one room category to the next higher room category, not from a particular level to the next level within the same category), shall be shouldered by the AHMOPI-Member concerned based on their respective Agreements with their members.

1.7.2. Incremental costs, if any, of voluntary room upgrades (i.e., from one room category to the next higher room category, not from a particular level to the next level within the same category), shall be shouldered by the member-patient. For voluntary room upgrades as defined above, PCS doctors may bill AHMOPI member-patients for the difference in professional fees (PF) between the member-patient's original room category and the upgraded room used, based on the PF schedules of the PCS-AHMOPI MOA which are currently applicable within the contract period of his Service Agreement with the AHMOPI-member concerned.

1.7.3. The same PF schedules of Items 1.1., 1.2., & 1.3. above should likewise be used for AHMOPI member-patients who exceed their Maximum Benefit Limits (MBL) per illness or injury per year or Aggregate Benefit Limit (ABL) per year under their respective Service Agreements.

1.7.4. Discounts for Senior Citizens or Persons With Disability will not apply to MOA rates.

2. The Physician shall not “balance-bill” AHMOPI patients for coverable health conditions and availments, nor enter into any private fee arrangements with AHMOPI patients, even with the latter's consent. However, for non-coverable health conditions and availments, the Physician may bill AHMOPI patients for Professional Fees based on the PF schedules of the PCS-AHMOPI MOA.

3. The Physician and AHMOPI agree that the consultation and surgical professional fees (Items 1.1, 1.2 & 1.3 above) shall be exclusive of the PHIC payment. However, it is understood that if the AHMOPI member-patient is not a PhilHealth Member, the Physician cannot bill the AHMOPI-member nor the AHMOPI patient for the PhilHealth portion of the consult/surgical fees.

4. All Professional Fees (PFs) are subject to the prevailing withholding tax rates and such other tax provisions. The prevailing Value Added Tax (VAT) currently at twelve percent (12%) shall be shouldered by the AHMOPI-Member concerned provided the Physician submits VAT registration certificates to the AHMOPI Member. On the other hand, withholding taxes will be deducted from the Physician's Professional Fees.

5. For medical procedures listed in the Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PhilHealth) and Philippine College of Surgeons (PCS) handbook of 2001, as amended in 01 April 2009, AHMOPI Members agree to pay professional fees based on the current/ prevailing PHIC Relative Value Scale (which is currently the 2009 RVS). For those procedures not listed, the PCS-AHMOPI Liaison Committee, in collaboration with the PCS Subspecialties concerned, shall meet and decide on the most appropriate PF schedules.

6. AHMOPI members will only reimburse the first Assistant Surgeon's fee (except surgeons on training) for both open and laparoscopic procedures on the following cases:

6.1. For procedures identified by the PCS-AHMOPI Liaison Committee and/or in cases pre-negotiated with the HMO (Annex "D" to follow).

6.2. Operations with an RVS of at least 250 units.

The first Assistant Surgeon's fee will be paid as follows:

6.3. Diplomate/Fellow - 25% of Surgeon's Fee

6.4. Non-Specialist Physician - 10% of Surgeon's Fee

7. All bills pertinent to PFs of the Physician for out-patient services afforded plan holders of AHMOPI members must be submitted to the AHMOPI member concerned within forty-five (45) days (but not later than five (5) months from date of availment, otherwise the same shall become null and non-payable) from date of service; and all in-patient claims must be submitted by the hospital within thirty (30) days to the AHMOPI member concerned. All bills presented by the Physician with complete documentation shall be fully paid by the AHMOPI member according to the negotiated rates (item 1 above) within forty-five (45) days from receipt of outpatient claims from the Physician, and within thirty (30) days from receipt of inpatient claims from the hospital.

7.1. A penalty of 3% per month shall be imposed on delays from submission of outpatient claims (by the doctors) or payment of claims (by AHMOPI Members).

7.2. It is the responsibility of the AHMOPI-Member to remit the payments for PFs directly to the Physician, including the certificate of tax withheld at source (Form 2307), for both inpatient and outpatient services.

8. The Physician shall extend utmost cooperation and shall coordinate with the AHMOPI Member on all matters pertaining to the effective and efficient delivery of health care and other support services.

9. The Physician shall comply with the policies and guidelines governing the servicing of Plan holders of AHMOPI Members such as, but not limited to, providing medical records, operative reports, discharge summaries, etc., whenever these shall be needed.

10. The Physician is an independent contractor, hence he/she is not considered an employee of the AHMOPI nor any of its Members. As such, the AHMOPI nor any of its Members shall not assume any statutory employer obligations such as, but not limited to, Social Security, PhilHealth, and Employee's Compensation premiums, etc.

11. The Physician agrees to hold AHMOPI Members and its plan holders free and harmless from any claim or liability to any third party arising out of, or related to, any act, omission or negligence of the part of the Physician.

12. This Agreement is effective from JUN 13 2023 to December 31, 2024 unless earlier terminated/revoked by either party by giving a thirty (30)-day prior notice to the other party.

13. Any modification/s to this Agreement shall be embodied in an Addendum to be attached herein and considered an integral part hereof.

14. Any PCS Physician or AHMOPI member participating in the PCS-AHMOPI MOA found to have violated any provision of the same by the PCS-AHMOPI Liaison Committee may be removed from the roster of participating members of the PCS-AHMOPI MOA.

15. To safeguard the security and integrity of all personal data and information of the data subjects as defined by RA 10173 and its IRR, as well as various issuances of the National Privacy Commission on Data Privacy, parties under this USA shall ensure that appropriate organizational, physical, and technical measures are in place to maintain the confidentiality, integrity, and security of all personal data that may come to its knowledge or possession by reason of any provision of this USA; and that its employees, agents, representatives, or any person acting under its authority shall hold personal information under strict confidentiality at all times.
